

2017 IEMA Research and Travel Scholarship

With the generous support of Milton Ezrati IEMA will award IEMA Research and Travel Scholarships to IEMA Graduate Student Members in the amount up to $2,000 for pre-dissertation or dissertation research for the period from June 1, 2017-May 31, 2018.

Eligibility: All currently enrolled doctoral students who are IEMA members, and have not yet started their 6th year; students can only receive the scholarship once.

Application Materials Required:

A brief proposal of no more than 2 pages (typed, single-spaced) in which you describe your research and its significance; and 1 page with the budget.

In addition, submit the following supportive materials:

- 1) a curriculum vitae
- 2) any funding you have received or applied for dissertation research

Submit proposals by email to the director of IEMA Peter F. Biehl (pbiehl@buffalo.edu) with Attn to: IEMA Research Scholarship in the subject line

Deadline: Friday at 4:30 p.m March 10, 2017.

The IEMA Board will review the applications and notify the recipient by March 31, 2017.

The recipient of this award will file a 3-5-page report with the IEMA Director of Graduate; this report will be printed in CHRONIKA. In addition, the recipient will give an IEMA Brownbag Talk.